YOUR ITINERARY

DAY 1~ SUNDAY ~ JANUARY 26

MILWAUKEE/BELIZE CITY

Your adventure begins as you board your flight to Belize. Arrive in Belize City and after customs, you will be greeted by our local Belizean Naturalist Guide and transferred to the Tropical Education Center. After dinner, there will be an orientation session to your Belize Experience.

The Tropical Education Center (TEC) is an 84-acre site set on tropical lowland savannah adjacent to The Belize Zoo in the heart of the Maya Forest Corridor. It serves as a lodge, learning center, and training facility. The rooms are spacious, clean, and homey. The lodge can accommodate as many as 30 people. The water source is a well which is treated and filtered through a charcoal filter. There are also outdoor showers and flush toilets. Wi-Fi is available in the dining room.

Overnight at the TROPICAL EDUCATION CENTER. (D)

DAY 2~ MONDAY ~ JANUARY 27

BIRDING TOUR OF TEC, ZOO (DAY & NIGHT)

At sunrise today, our group will have the opportunity to go birding on the grounds of the Tropical Education Center (TEC), more than 225 species of birds have been recorded here. Following breakfast, we will tour the TEC facilities, which are situated on 84 acres of tropical pine savannah habitat. The ecology of the savannah will be discussed, as we hike along some of the many trails here and observe resident birds and other wildlife.

After lunch, we will drive over to the Belize Zoo. Participants will hear about The Belize Zoo's Human Jaguar Conflict Program, as well as the Belize Harpy Eagle Program. Our group will then tour the very unique and popular Belize Zoo. The Zoo has over 125 animal species on display, all of which are native to Belize, including all five species of cats found here. The Zoo was designed to display the animals in settings that closely match their natural habitats. The Zoo and TEC have a well-deserved reputation for conservation of native wildlife, rehabilitation of injured animals and an outstanding public education program.

Following dinner, our group will return to the Zoo and observe some of the nocturnal animals of Belize. Overnight at the TROPICAL EDUCATION CENTER. (B,L,D)

DAY 3~ TUESDAY ~ JANUARY 28
CHAA CREEK BUTTERFLY FARM/NATURAL HISTORY CENTER & XUNANTUNICH

This morning, our group will depart for Chaa Creek Butterfly Farm and Natural History Center. This will be a great opportunity for photographing the “Belizean Blue;” the iridescent wing of this butterfly is always a marvel. A guided tour here teaches about the lifecycle of the butterfly and their ecological significance. We will also tour the Natural History Center and learn more about the natural history of Belize, through photographs, artefacts and educational display boards. Lunch will be at a nearby local restaurant.

Our afternoon continues with a visit to Archaeological Maya site of Xunantunich. This archaeological site dates back some 1400 years. The name is translated by present day Maya as "maiden of the rock". Once at the site we will hike to the top of the 130-foot-high pyramid called "El Castillo." This site offers one of the most spectacular views in all of Belize. Lush jungle is seen to the east, the Guatemalan lowlands to the west and the beautiful Maya Mountains to the south. Late this afternoon, we will return to the Tropical Education Center for dinner and overnight.

DAY 4 ~ WEDNESDAY ~ JANUARY 29
BIRD BANDING & RUNAWAY CREEK NATURE RESERVE

Back in 1997, The Foundation for Wildlife Conservation Inc. (FWC) and the Zoological Society of Milwaukee (ZSM) started Birds Without Borders – Aves Sin Fronteras as a research, conservation, and education project with private landowners in both Belize and Wisconsin. The objective of this project was to protect birds by conserving the habitat they need to survive. This project resulted with the establishment of the Runaway Creek Nature Reserve.

Early this morning we will observe a bird banding demonstration on the grounds of the tropical education center. We will learn how to set up mist nets, safely extract birds from nets, fit birds with Aluminum bands, measure, and record data. After breakfast, we will do a guided hike to the “Painted Cave” and “Guardians of the Cave” on the Runaway Creek Nature Reserve. We will trek through different forest types including pine savannah, transitional forest, seasonal wetland, and broadleaf forest.

Archaeological evidence suggests that these caves were used by both the Maya and Runaway Slaves, and today, continue to be used by different wildlife. We might be lucky to see the rare spider monkey foraging or resting in the trees outside the openings of the caves. Trail cameras are set up to capture wildlife passing through one of the caves; we will have an opportunity to view the photos taken by the camera, which often include recent shots of jaguars and pumas! We'll return to the TEC for a late lunch and an evening of relaxing around the pool.

DAY 5 ~ THURSDAY ~ JANUARY 30 MAYA CENTER/COCKSCOMB BASIN WILDLIFE SANCTUARY & PLACENCIA

Following an early breakfast, our group will depart for the Cockscomb Basin Wildlife Sanctuary and Jaguar Reserve. Cockscomb Basin is home to numerous bird species, almost 300 species of birds have been identified here, including the scarlet macaw, Montezuma oropendola and toucans. Situated in the shadow of the Mayan Mountains, the Reserve encompasses ≈124,00 acres of tropical moist forest, which includes Victoria Peak, at 3,675 ft, the highest point in Belize. It is one of the most impressive locations for viewing Belize's lush tropical forests and a true paradise for those interested in viewing wildlife. No place in Belize has a better organized system of well-maintained trails. These include Ben's Bluff Trail, which will take us to a ridge where jaguars have been studied using radiotelemetry. The remainder of the afternoon will be spent hiking in the Reserve. This evening, we will spend the night in the coast village of Placencia.

For the next two nights, you will be staying at Umaya Resort Belize, situated along the stunning Maya Beach and conveniently close to the charming village of Placencia. This resort offers an ideal setting to soak up the sun, featuring a private beach, beachfront dining, and comfortable sun loungers. Indulge in delicious meals at the two on-site restaurants, serving a variety of Caribbean cuisine for breakfast, brunch, lunch, and dinner. The hotel boasts 60 rooms, each equipped with modern amenities such as air conditioning, a private bathroom with hot and cold water, a refrigerator, TV, and complimentary in-room Wi-Fi.

- You must be in excellent physical health to enjoy this destination to its fullest. These conditions may pose problems to participants with particular physical issues, and you should always consult your personal physician before embarking on such an adventure.

General

- True adventure in travel can sometimes be accompanied by unexpected changes in conditions, itineraries and occasionally your accommodations.
- Participants should travel with a spirit of adventure and flexibility. Remember to pack your patience and sense of humor! RATES: Rates are based on the minimum number of guests outlined in this document, plus airfare costs, currency exchange rates and other factors and are subject to change. Though it is rare for Classic Escapes to make a price adjustment after promotion of an itinerary, we do reserve the right to assess a surcharge if the minimum is not met, or if increases are forced upon us by airlines or other partners or because of changes in currency exchange rates.

ADDITIONAL FEES: Additional taxes and surcharges that cannot be pre-collected may be charged locally. If more than two single rooms are needed, an additional supplement may apply. Single accommodations are not guaranteed but will be provided at additional cost if available (see 'Your Journey at a Glance' section for the cost.) The single room supplement pays for privacy, not better accommodations. However, if this is not possible, you will be required to pay the single room supplement prior to your departure from the USA.

These charges can be up to 100% of the cost of the booking, regardless of whether travel has commenced. Where we incur any liability for a cancellation fee or charge for any booking that you cancel, you agree to indemnify us for the amount of that fee or charge. Cancellations are only effective upon receipt of written notification. The following per-person fees are applicable:

- Once payment is made, it is non-refundable.

These cancellation fees are also in addition to any fees imposed by airlines.

REFUNDS: While Classic Escapes uses its best endeavors to ensure that all anticipated accommodation is available as planned, there is no claim of any nature whatsoever against Classic Escapes for a refund, in whole or in part, if any accommodation or excursion is unavailable and a reasonable alternative is not found, or if the Traveler is unable to use any service provided in the itinerary.

CHANGES: Once your tour is reserved, changes to the itinerary are possible subject to the availability of air or land space at the time of your request. Should there be any change fees imposed by any airlines or ground operators, or additional costs incurred due to the availability of any space, these costs will be invoiced to you and you will be responsible for payment thereof.

SPECIAL ARRANGEMENTS: Should you wish to make additional travel plans, including specially arranged pre- or post-tour extensions different than those offered in conjunction with your tour, a service charge of $150 per person (over and above the cost of the services required) will be assessed.

DOCUMENTS

PASSPORTS: All individuals departing from the United States of America must be in possession of a valid passport. Please check that your passport is valid for at least 6 months beyond your intended return date. It is your responsibility to ensure that you have valid travel documentation, including but not limited to passports and visas, which meet the requirements of immigration and other government authorities at every destination. You are responsible for confirming with the United States Department of State or the representative government agency of the country to which you are traveling to confirm the requirements for visas and/or other requirements for admission to your destination. Any fines, penalties, payments, or expenditures incurred as a result of such documents not meeting the requirements of those authorities will be your sole responsibility.

REAL ID: Beginning May 7, 2025, if you plan to use your state-issued ID or license to fly within the U.S., it is your responsibility to make sure it is REAL ID compliant. If you are not sure if your ID complies, please check with your local state Department of Motor Vehicles or visit www.tsa.gov/real-id.

TRAVEL DOCUMENTS: It is the responsibility of each Traveler to obtain and carry a valid passport, visa(s), and all other documents required by applicable government regulations. When traveling domestically or internationally, the U.S. Transportation Security Administration (TSA) and U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS) advise that everyone carry acceptable identification in order to board a flight. Acceptable identification can be found at <http://www.tsa.gov/traveler-information/acceptable-ids>. The name, date of birth and gender that appears on the identification card must exactly match the same such data that is listed on airline ticket(s) and booking records. You acknowledge any failure to strictly comply with these requirements may result in denied boarding or an undue delay at an airport security checkpoint causing Traveler to miss flight(s), and subsequent scheduled travel bookings on cruises and tours.

Travel documents include, without limitation, airline tickets, hotel vouchers, tour vouchers, or any other document (whether in electronic form or otherwise) used to confirm an arrangement with a service provider. Travel documents may be subject to certain conditions and/or restrictions such as, but not limited to, being non-refundable, non-date-changeable, and subject to cancellation and/or amendment fees. Travel documents cannot be transferred to another person to use. All airline tickets must be issued in the name of the passport/photo identity holder. An incorrect name on a booking may result in an inability to use that booking and the booking being cancelled. Any errors in names, dates, and timings may result in an inability to use that booking and the booking being cancelled. Any errors in names, dates, and timings on your documentation will be your responsibility if we are not advised at the time of booking. Please reconfirm your flights at least 24 hours prior to departure.

PRE-DEPARTURE INFORMATION: Upon receipt of your registration and deposit, we will send you an electronic pre-departure packet containing all the information you need to prepare for your tour, including the complete itinerary, packing checklist, required documents, insurance information, etc.

FINAL DOCUMENTS: Electronic final documents and air e-tickets will be sent to you approximately two weeks prior to departure, provided all monies have been paid in full.

TRANSPORTATION

AIR TRANSPORTATION: Your program does not include international airfare. If you require assistance, contact Classic Escapes.

FREQUENT FLYER MILEAGE: Check on the airline's website to enquire who their partners are. Obtain frequent flyer mileage on any of these carriers. Present your frequent flyer card for all flight check-ins and keep the boarding passes until you receive a statement with the mileage credit.

TRANSFERS: Roundtrip airport transfers are included in the tour for guests arriving on group flights. If travelers make their own air arrangements, they will be subject to extra transfer fees.

FLIGHT CONFIRMATION: We strongly suggest that you reconfirm exact flight times with the carrier prior to departure. Air travelers are required to check in at least 2 hours prior to departure time for domestic flights and 3 hours for international flights and must report to the gate at least 30 minutes prior to departure time. Failure to comply may result in the loss of the seat to another passenger.

HAZARDOUS MATERIALS: Federal law prohibits passengers from bringing hazardous materials on the aircraft. Federal law forbids the carriage of hazardous materials aboard aircraft in the passenger's luggage or on the passenger's person. A violation can result in five years' imprisonment and penalties of $250,000 or more (49 U.S.C. 5124). Hazardous materials include explosives, compressed gases, flammable liquids and solids, oxidizers, poisons, corrosives, and radioactive materials. Examples: Paints, lighter fluid, fireworks, tear gases, oxygen bottles, and radiopharmaceuticals. There are special exceptions for small quantities (up to 70 ounces total) of medicinal and toilet articles carried in the passenger's luggage and certain smoking materials carried on the passenger's person. For further information, each passenger should contact the relevant airline representative(s) on their itinerary. Restrictions on hazardous materials are listed <http://www.tsa.gov/traveler-information/prohibited-items>.

INSECTICIDE NOTICE: Some countries require insecticide spraying of aircraft prior to a flight or while you are on the aircraft. We recommend that you refer to the Department of Transportation's list of airports in countries that require airlines to treat the passenger cabin with insecticides prior to the flight or while on the aircraft available at <https://www.dot.gov/office-policy/aviation-policy/aircraft-disinsection-requirements>.

BAGGAGE & FEES: Additional fees for baggage may apply. Please contact your airline or refer to its website for detailed information regarding its checked baggage policies. On average, international flights from the USA allow one piece of checked luggage, not exceeding 50 pounds, plus a carry-on piece not exceeding 15 pounds; however, we always recommend that you check your airline's policy just before departure, as luggage limitations are always subject to change. There may also be luggage and weight restrictions for your destination and that information will be forwarded to you with your pre-departure material and also listed on your final documents.

AIRLINE CLAUSE: The airlines concerned are not to be held liable for any act, omission, or event during the time the passengers are not on board their planes or conveyance. The passengers' tickets in use by the airline or by other carriers concerned when issued shall constitute the sole contract between the airlines and the purchaser of these tickets and/or passengers.

DELAYS: We cannot be held liable for any delays or additional costs incurred as a result of airlines not running to schedule. Any additional land or air fees imposed on account of airline delays will be borne by the traveler.
